UNC Charlotte Psychology: Study Abroad in Wrocław, Poland!!

World-wide university partnerships offered by UNC Charlotte's Office of Education Abroad <https://edabroad.uncc.edu/> can introduce you to locations and experiences well beyond the walls of Colvard. Studying abroad is a wonderful opportunity to engage with a different culture and benefit from the resources of another educational institution. Many institutions abroad offer excellent psychology courses, consider taking some required psychology courses and classes on topics different from those available at UNC Charlotte. Study abroad can easily fit into your academic plan by visiting the Office of Education Abroad to select an international program, meeting with your psychology advisor to decide on the best time to go and the classes to take, and consulting with the Office of Student Financial Aid <http://finaid.uncc.edu/> to make the opportunity affordable. Learn about yourself, learn about psychology, and learn about the world by participating in study abroad!

Wrocław is a riverside city comprised of 12 islands and connected by 112 bridges. The historical center is surrounded by abundance of greenery, parks, good restaurants, hotels and friendly people making the city a pleasant place to live and study in. Students coming to Wrocław remember the city mainly as a cultural and academic center. Its theatres, clubs, museums and galleries provide a continuous series of artistic events. Internationally acknowledged musical festivals have become the city's cultural landmark.
